

Kambriel

Hailing from Salem, Mass., Kambriel and her designs have been touching the hearts (and closets!) of people everywhere. Being personally involved in the gothic subculture since 1985 and then creating her own specialty label in '94, Kambriel truly understands the need for clothing that every Goth guy craves. Every garment is handmade and perfectly done, right down to the authenticity of the look and feel of the corresponding periods in which they were inspired. In the case of Kambriel, it is very clear that her influence is discovered in the majesty of the 16th Century. www.kambriel.com
