

ATROCITIES

The Grand Guignol of the fashion world...

In the distinctly atmospheric realm of Salem, Massachusetts, one can find the Classical clothing and accessories of Atrocities, run by artisans Curse and Kambriel. Specializing in the sensual shape and form of precious fabrics, Atrocities reminds one of the heyday of Hollywood's Gothic costuming, (such as the flowing robes of the brides of Dracula), as well as the stark brilliance of early German Expressionistic clothing. We first met the creators of Atrocities while on tour, and were immediately struck by their dedication to their craft, as well as the gorgeous creativity of their distinctly unique offerings. All of their pieces are eerily beautiful and quite ageless: from velvet purses and jackets to hand-quilted pillows, from carefully crafted full-length capes to hand-quilted silk and velvet bed throws, the adorable Kambriel knows no bounds to what she can create.
